PLEASE RESPOND TO THE FOLLOWING:

(1) What are the learning goals/outcomes for your course? In other words, what do you want students to know, be able to do, or value when they complete your course (e.g. “I want students to be able to explain the disparate treatment of disease and its impact on marginalized communities; I want students to be able to have informed, respectful, and reflexive (reflective) discussions about identity, power, and privilege with their peers.”).

(2) How will you assess learning throughout your course (e.g. presentations, research papers, reflection assignments, exams)?
(3) What teaching methods will you use to help students achieve your learning goals (e.g. discussion, group work, community engagement, field work, lecture, inclusive pedagogies)?

(4) Does the course pay significant attention to one or more of the following groups: African Americans/Black Diaspora; Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders; Latinx/Chicanx; and Native Americans? What percentage of the course is devoted to these groups (refer to course syllabus)? How?

(5) Does the course examine the intersection of inequity based on dimensions of identity such as class, gender, LGBTQ identities, disability, and/or religion? How?
